GNLU announces A.R. Gupta International Essay Competition On Public International Law - 2011

23 August 2011

Dear sir/madam

Greetings from Gujarat National Law University.

I take pleasure in announcing this important news to your institution.

The GNLU Center for Public International Law (CPIL) in association with Mr A. R. Gupta, a leading advocate of Gujarat and an enthusiastic pioneer in promoting legal education in the country has sponsored the prestigious GNLU - A. R. Gupta & Associates International Essay Competition on Public International Law – 2011.

Mr A. R. Gupta has been a constant support for all of us in legal academia. His efforts to build Public International Law Thinking among students have become well-known through this generous initiative in the form of international level essay competition on public international law exclusively for law-students in India and abroad.

Dr M. Gandhi, Joint Secretary of the Legal and Treaties Division, Ministry of External Affairs, Govt of India released the brochure of this prestigious essay competition in the presence of GNLU academic fraternity on 18th August 2011.

Kindly see the attached brochure for detailed rules and regulations.

In case of clarification kindly refer GNLU website: www.gnlu.ac.in or CPIL website: http://gnlu.ac.in/cpil.htm or write to us at cpil@gnlu.ac.in

As you know GNLU Center for Public International Law (CPIL) is a humble and growing center of academic studies and research in the area of public international law. We request you to share this information to other legal institutions and students at large.

Thanking you in anticipation

Best wishes

Dr K. Parameswaran
