GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 20/2016

GNLU to Organise Certificate Course on European Union and Sports

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

In pursuance of its goal to increase awareness of Sports Law, the GNLU Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law (GCSEL) is organising a three-day 'International Certificate Course on European Union and Sports' from 15th to 17th of February, 2016 at Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar.

The course will be taught by Professor (Dr.) Ian Blackshaw, Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales, International Sports Lawyer, and an academician. Prof. Blackshaw has extensive experience in the field of Sports Law and he appears regularly as speaker in various conferences all over the world. He has numerous researches and publications which are authority in the field of International Sports Law.

Sport is a global phenomenon and Sports Law is one of the fastest developing discipline in many parts of the world. The objective of this course is to give introduction and a brief comprehensive summary of the law and practices relating to sports in European Union (EU). The lectures will cover the topics such as Bosman's Case Ruling, Sale of sports TV Rights in EU and will discuss the impact of landmark cases on EU Sports Law. With over 50 registered participants from India and foreign nations, this Course has already gained widespread interest among law students.
