GNLU Participates in First International Moot Court Competition on Sports Law; Bags Runner-up Trophy

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) student team participated in 4th Amity International Moot Court Competition 2016 on Sports Law, and reached final round. This is the first ever moot court competition in India involving Sports Law, organised by Amity Law School, Amity University, Noida.

GNLU Moot Team comprising Ms. Palak Nagar and Ms. Rishika Mendiratta, as Oralists, and Mr. Abhishek Kakkar, as Researcher, represented GNLU, among 32 other participating teams representing various universities from India and abroad, in this competition. GNLU team was declared runner-up in the final round and was honoured with a runner-up trophy by Mr. Kirti Azad, former Indian Cricket Player and Member of Parliament; and Mr. Ajay Maken, former Sports Minister, Government of India. The jury member for the competition included Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prafulla Chandra Pant, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Hon'ble Mr. Ashoka Kumar Patnaik, Judge, Central Administrative Tribunal, Cuttack.

GNLU has previously emerged as winner in various national and international moot court competitions. GNLU takes pride in securing runner-up position in the first Sports Law International Moot Court Competition, despite preparation by GNLU students in a very short notice period.
