GNLU Organises Blood Donation Camp

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

The Legal Services Committee which is under the aegis of the GNLU Centre for Law and Society (GCLS) conducted the Annual Blood Donation Camp in the premises of Gujarat National Law University (www.gnlu.ac.in) as part of its 13th Foundation Day celebrations. The camp was organized in collaboration with the Indian Red Cross Society, Ahmedabad Chapter on the 15th July 2016.

As expected, the Blood Donation Camp, which started with the customary lighting of the lamp by the faculty members of the University, witnessed massive participation from the Faculty Members and Students who turned up in huge numbers to support this noble cause. Over 200 students turned up to donate blood on that day. Out of 207 registrations made, 133 could successfully donate in a span of 5 hours. The donors were awarded a certificate of appreciation along with refreshments by the Red Cross Society to acknowledge their efforts in this initiative. The Lions Club International, Ahmedabad also supported this cause by providing free merchandise to the successful donors.

It was heartening to see a turnout of such a number. The blood donation drive clearly depicts the spirit of Gujarat National Law University.
