

Gandhinagar, Wednesday, 24th August 2016

GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 45/2016

Deputy Chief of Mission, Embassy of the Peoples Republic of China in India delivers a talk on “Indo China relations challenges and issues and role of Academic Institutions” at GNLU

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) is a Research Based Teaching University and is committed to address the contemporary legal issues. Its objective has always been to provide world class legal education and this is amply reflected through its activities which are focused on providing opportunities of knowledge sharing, such as training, workshops, guest lectures.

GNLU has had the honor of hosting ambassadors and consuls of several nations posted in India and benefit from their interactions with students and the GNLU community at large on various issues of bilateral relations. Continuing with this practice, GNLU organizes the Ambassador Lecture Series every year. This year too, GNLU has invited Mr. Liu Jinsong, the Charge D'affaires and DCM of Embassy of the Peoples Republic of China in India on 31st August 2016 to be a part of this lecture series and share his knowledge through his lecture on 'Indo-China Relations, Challenges and Issues and the Role of an Academician'. Mr. Jinsong will be accompanied by Mr. Ai Longfei, Education Officer, Education Department, Mr. Tu Pengfei, Third Secretary, Economic & Commercial Counsellor's Office and Mr. Tu Pengfei, Third Secretary, Economic & Commercial Counsellor's Office.

In the past too, GNLU has had the honor of hosting many luminaries such as Mr. John Crook, the Judge of NATO's Administrative Tribunal, His Excellency Ambassador Mark Sofer, Ambassador of Israel to India, Mrs. Orna Sagiv, Consul General of Israel in Mumbai, HE Mr. M. Hamid Ansari, Hon'ble Vice President of India, Prof. Susan Karamanian, George Washington University Law School, USA, Dr. Mohammad Mohluddin, Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Law & Justice, Bangladesh Secretariat, Mr. Beatriz Marin, Head of the International Office, Technical University of Cartagena, Murcia, Spain, to name a few.

The lecture intends to explore the bilateral relations between the two countries, the challenges and issues faced and how it can be strengthened through academic collaborations. The lecture will witness the participation of all the students of GNLU along with the faculty members and the members of the statutory bodies of GNLU.

During his visit, Mr. Jinsong and his Team will witness the Exhibition portraying the Judicial History of India displayed in the GNLU Legal History Museum. The delegation will also interact with the members of the Leadership of GNLU and the faculty members of the University.

For any further queries, please contact Dr. William Nunes, Associate Professor of Political Science and Convener, Center for Foreign Policy and Security Studies at (8128650855) or (wnunes@gnlu.ac.in)