GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 73/2017

GNLU organizes a Certificate Course on “Global Financial Regulatory System (GFRS)” from 9th – 13th February, 2017

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), a Research Based Teaching University, is committed to provide world class legal education and all round development of the students. Therefore, GNLU takes a holistic approach when it comes to the development of the students, and hence it offers various diploma and certificate courses, besides workshops and training in different areas of law and allied fields. Taking forward such initiative, GNLU has recently organized a Certificate Course on “Global Financial Regulatory System” from 9th - 13th February 2017. The duration of the course was 14 hours. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Ranita Nagar, Dean – Research & Head – Department of Social Sciences, Dr. Viral Pandya, Deputy Dean – Academic Affairs and the Resource Person for the course was Dr. Hiteshkumar Thakkar, Assistant Professor of Economics, in the august gathering of participants and staff members on 9th February 2017.

The course has provided a broad understanding of international financial institutions, international standard setting bodies and stakeholders which act at the global level. The GFRS deliberate and deliver on most significant rules, best practice, and guidelines that are required to reduce fragility and market risk in international finance. It prepares guidelines for various sectors such as the banking sector, securities market, insurance and corporate sector. The course has elucidated the conceptual aspect of International Financial Regulatory System where the participants had an exposure of learning Global Financial architecture. The resource person broadly focused on Micro-Prudential Regulators (World Bank, BIS, OECD, BCBS, IASB, IAIS, IOSCO, CPMI and CGFS) and Macro-Prudential Regulators (IMF and FSB) in the backdrop of Global Financial Integration. The Certificate course was appreciated by the participants in the advanced area of Macroeconomics and Law, which was first of its kind, organized by GNLU.
