GNLU – Largest Recruiter of fresher's in Teaching Position

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), since its inception in 2003, has witnessed perpetuated augmentation in its efficiency and quality each year towards being a world class Law University. Today, it has excelled to the peak of the knowledge and has been ranked as the 5th Best Law University in the country with the commendable support of its faculty, staff, students and other stake holders in no small measure.

GNLU being a Research Based Teaching University, is committed to address the contemporary legal issues which is reflected in its activities which has always been research focused. It has some of the best faculty members that GNLU can boast of. Focusing on providing world class teaching and learning environment, GNLU has emerged as one of the largest recruiters for giving fresher's an opportunity to make a career in academics. Presently GNLU has a young brigade of over 15 fresher's working in the capacity of Teaching and Research Associates or Research Associates.

The main objective behind this is to create and build excellent teaching resources and inculcate the value of this noble profession among the alumni of NLUs and other Law Universities. GNLU invites application or letter of interest from the prospective candidates who can be a part of the University as Teaching and Research Associate and grow as an academician.
