About GNLU

Gujarat National Law University is one of the premier National Law Universities of India, accredited with 'A' grade by NAAC. The University was established under the Gujarat National Law University Act, a statutory legislation passed by the Government of Gujarat in the year 2003. The University offers Under Graduate, Post Graduate and Ph.D. courses in law as well as many interdisciplinary areas. It is one of the leading centres for teaching and learning with respect to legal education in India. The University is also a forerunner in the field of interdisciplinary research. The University has established various Centres of Excellence to carryout research, training and extension activities. One of the important areas of our academic and scholarly focus is a Centre dedicated to research and training on disability studies launch on October 2nd, 2019.

About GCDS

The GNLU Centre for Disability Studies was established on October 2nd 2019 with an aim to work for disability rights and social justice through promotion of teaching and research in the interdisciplinary areas of sociology, social work, law and policy. Through curriculum development, research projects and disability studies, the Centre attempts to do meaningful contribution in the areas of disability and human rights, disability and society, accessibility and reasonable accommodations, inclusive education, gender and disability, amongst others. The Centre intends to create an environment ensuring mainstreaming and equal participation of students with disabilities in the University.

About Summer School Programme

This programme is aimed at providing the students with different dimensions of disability. It shall enable them to understand the different theoretical aspects pertaining to the lived reality of persons with disability and the issues and concerns faced by them. This course will help the participants to explore the nuances related to the rights, entitlements, services and programmes available for this largely marginalized community.
