

MBA

(Financial Management and Business Laws)

About the Programme

Contemporary business environment has witnessed unprecedented complexities in terms of Institutions, Instruments and Regulations. With the large scale of integration across the globe, national and international regulatory framework continue to shape the destiny of the institutions. In view of this dynamism, creation of competence and skillset in the domain of financial management and business laws remain a major challenge.

With the objective of creation and dissemination of specialized knowledge and skills in the above disciplines, GNLU initiated a two year full time residential MBA (Financial Management and Business Laws) programme to nurture managerial and legal acumen of the participants. This programme aims to cater to the skill and human capital requirements of Indian and multinational corporations, investment and banking houses, public sector undertakings, regulatory authorities and international organizations, etc.

GNLU MBA in Financial Management and Business Laws

... A Programme For Future Business And Legal Leaders And Strategists

Contemporary business environment has witnessed unprecedented complexities in terms of Institutions, Instruments and Regulations. With the large scale of integration across the globe, national and international regulatory framework continue to shape the destiny of the institutions. Indian and Chinese economy have intertwined messages for the whole global business and economic community. The dynamic and unprecedented changes happening in the business and legal landscape of American, European and Asian economies call for prompt understanding of the business and legal issues in integrated manner. The Economic Crisis of 2008 in US and European markets, Rising Indian Growth Story, Chinese economic upheavals and the African Rise, can only be explained through an integrated business and law perspective. The micro issues and challenges posed by these big stories leave little time for institutions, let alone individuals, to prepare and effect timely response. A businessman without good legal knowledge or a lawyer without good business practices knowledge is doomed to be swept away in fraction of time. We are living in indeed a most unstable and unpredictable business and legal environment. There are certain issues and challenges which can be only resolved through legal actions only. In view of this dynamism, creation of competence and skillset in the domain of financial management and business laws remain a major challenge.

With the objective of creation and dissemination of specialized knowledge and skills in the above disciplines, GNLU initiated a two year full time residential MBA (Financial Management and Business Laws) programme to nurture managerial and legal acumen of the participants. This programme aims to cater to the skill and human capital requirements of Indian and multinational corporations, investment and banking houses, public sector undertakings, regulatory authorities and international organizations, etc.

The programme will be specifically suitable for students and young business executives who are searching for holistic integrated answers to their complex questions. Foreign students willing to initiate businesses, import-export relations with India and Asian economies, advise companies in their own jurisdictions on legal and regulatory matters, learn alternative dispute resolutions to myriad of business disputes, acquire understanding of functional economies and businesses through practical experiences, network with actors and institutions of Indian and Asian economies, market and share success business-legal stories in a different environment, will have learning environment with fun and cultural experience. The programme will have business and legal Gurus from across the globe influencing your vision and thought process. Availability of excellent library facilities, case-studies will add on the knowledge base. We will also provide skills-training to make you master of networking, drafting, communication, etiquette which are extremely important in today's globalized world. Most importantly, internship / training during the programme will equip you with very useful first-hand experience in understanding the real working of the business and law houses, public sector undertakings, governmental departments, MNCs, companies, big project management institutions of India.

Welcome to India, learn and explore "Make in India", "Digital India", "Rising India", "Asian Century", and see for yourself how your dreams are bound to materialize at GNLU through this unique MBA programme in a world-class university campus with most modern amenities and facilities.
