Sports: The Sports Committee of Gujarat National Law University was commenced in the year 2008 with a vision to develop the sporting culture in the University. The new campus for GNLU brought with it improved infrastructure for sports, and the Sports Committee took this as the perfect launching pad to take sports activities in GNLU to new heights. The Sports Committee works tirelessly through the year, organising a plethora of inter-batch events, Stepoover Cup, GFL, Volleymania, Super Sixes, Blacktop, Cyclathon and Innards (Chess, Carom Table Tennis) that have not only kept the fun alive amongst the enthusiastic students throughout the year but have also served to unearth precocious, hidden talents who have become fixtures in the University teams. The Sports Committee of GNLU follows a decentralized power structure with the Committee being divided into various clubs, each with its own head, all of whom answer to the Student Convenor and Faculty Convenor. This system has proved to be very successful, as the Committee has grown in leaps and bounds over the past few years, and this has been most evident in the élan and aplomb with which the Justice League events have been conducted. Computer Lab: A separate Computer Lab is established at the Academic Block, which is maintained by the University ICT Section. For the Computers repairing and maintenance there is an AMC which is awarded to the company after fulfilling all the procurement terms and conditions. Students can utilize this facility with the approval of the ICT Head and support staff will be deputed for this time. Library: The GNLU library aims to become a repository of knowledge and research. It aims to employ efforts to establish an excellent library to act as a legal hub for anyone and everyone interested in legal research and reference. It also aims to support the teaching, learning and research needs of GNLU scholars, students and faculty by providing a rich collection of the world's legal literature. GNLU library offer membership to external users also. You may access library as an external member. A Committee is constituted to look into the affairs of the Library, namely Library Committee, which consisting of senior faculty members, administrative staff from Library and students. The committee look into the matter related to purchase of the books, software, e-journals, etc. The requisition of the concerned subject faculty members with justification will be discussed in the Library Committee and if it is found that this is essential the books procurement process will be carried away. The Committee also look into the infrastructure and library services related issues. The University has centralised OPAC Server is managed for providing e-books, e-journals and UN Depository materials in soft copies apart from accessibilities for e-journals such as EPW, J GATE are available.

CRITERION VI – GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 – Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 – Mention two practices of decentralization and participative management during the last year (maximum 500 words)

1) One of the aims with which a student undertakes any course is to see self, employed with an organization of interest. The University to facilitate this aim of the students organizes interview processes for the selection of students by different firms. The Student body plans out, converses with various firms and depending upon the interest of the students and requirement of the firms arranges the selection process. The University to ensure the overall development of the students not only stresses on the education but also provides a platform to exhibit their artistic skills by organizing several events. To organize the same students are also made part of the planning and execution of events, which provides them a feeling of involvement in the whole process and appreciation for the activities. 2) Class Representatives(CR): The University has a system of Class Representatives from each batch. These CRs will be nominated by way of nomination by the students, The CRs role is very crucial and they are the path between the administration and students fraternity. When any issues or students have any specific demands, they discuss them with CRs first. Then CRs will seek meetings with the authority. And during the meeting, they will discuss and will justify the demands. In case the request or demand is very justifiable, the authority may grant with the approval of the requisite council, in case if required. The CRs also kept in many committees as representatives of the batches. At the time of selection from each batch, one boy and one girl will be nominated. Every committee of the university consists of students members and amongst the student member, convener, co-convener, secretaries, president, vice presidents etc. are selected for the administration of the committee functioning. Every center of the GNLU have students members coordinating the activities of the centres.

Curriculum Development

Curriculum development is attached the highest degree of importance at GNLU. The University follows a healthy and systematic process for the designing and development of curriculum. Faculty-members are allocated subjects (core, optional and seminar) based on the preference/s indicated and the expertise shown through applications (that come, along with the notice of intimation of the same, at the end of the semester to decide curriculum plan for the next semester). The ACC prepares a draft-list of allocation of subjects among the faculty-members. Upon the acceptance and approval (of the draft) by the Director and the Dean (AA), the ACC releases the final list of allotment. GNLU designs its curricula in accordance with the UGC and the BCI mandates, and does take into account the syllabi of other prominent National Law Universities in India and major foreign universities for further upgradation of its own curricula. At GNLU, the curriculum is reviewed and upgraded every year. So, meaningful restructuring, keeping account of latest developments and anticipated developments is done every year. Each faculty member is required to anticipate research developments and also broadly outline Vision 2025 in his/her particular subject. The University follows a systematic process for the designing, development, updating and revision of the curriculum. Curriculum is developed through a Ten-Point RbTU (Research based Teaching University) document, an initiative of the University to amalgamate teaching and research. The following are the parameters of the RbTU model, as developed by the University: (1) Preparation of course-outline in consultation with minimum two experts from India and/or abroad. (2) Inclusion of latest/leading/landmark judgments, relevant Acts and Bills for reference. (3) Inclusion of a list of books/articles (minimum 10). (4) Inclusion of observations on at least 5 books/articles in the course outline.

(5) Inputs/insights, as appropriate, from best practices of syllabi prepared by leading law schools in the world.

(6) Identification and enlisting of forthcoming international/national conferences/seminars/workshops in the respective subject. (7) Organisation of guest lecture/consultation from Academia/Bar /Bench, Industry, etc. (8) Consultation and request for guidance from leading luminary/Nobel laureates/Magsaysay awardees/national international law firms and PSUs. (9) Establishing contacts with faculty-members of leading universities/institutes for teaching and research. (10) Inclusion of any emerging issue/development/area of research, related to the subject. • Emerging issue/development/ area of research related to the subject. • Elements of sustainable development • Vision 2025 • Teaching methodologies, tools and techniques • Career prospects

Also, University provides complete autonomy to the departments/faculties to revise or update existing curricula to incorporate latest knowledge development and to introduce new courses along with the employment market needs.

Examination and Evaluation

• Introduction of On-line Attendance

In 2018, the University to further enhance the quality of examination, the University procured online attendance software to take online attendance of students in the class room. The online attendance brings more transparency and error free process in the attendance process whereby the student can see whether they have been marked absent or present. • General Apart from this the University on regular intervals have taken important measures to further enhance the quality of examination as well as evaluation. The University with an object to keep the students up-to-date on their subject knowledge conducts continuous evaluation (Test, Projects, and Group Discussion etc.) Apart from continuous evaluation the University conducts the Mid-Term Test as well as End Term Examination. Students are allowed to access their scripts of mid-term tests as well as end term examinations to resolve their doubts as well as further improve their answers. Students can also apply for reevaluation of their End-Semester answer scripts. To maintain the sanctity of the examination process, students with less attendance are not allowed to sit in the examination. To avoid any kind of malpractices or unfair means, the duties of invigilation and flying squad is conducted by the faculty members. It's compulsory for the students to appear in the examination with their identity card.

Library, ICT and Physical Infrastructure / Instrumentation

A rich collection of new e-books, databases and Journals for national and international legal contents, have been added to the library resources with the aim of fulfilling the user's requirements. Oxford Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law , Max Plank Encyclopedia of Comparative Constitutional Law, Oxford Scholarly authorities on International Law were new additions to the library. A total of 192 Journals from which 122 journals were subscribed on online mode with archival collection. A total of 1860 books were added in the library. Collection of books topped to 19686. A training Programme on Law Librarianship (12-15 November, 2018) was organized for the Law library professionals. We have upgrade to LIBSYS 4X web version from LIBSYS7 for the library management system software.

Admission of Students

GNLU is part of CLAT and accordingly all the admission process by dealt by the CLAT committee. GNLU gives scholarship to the top 20 students if they are admitted at GNLU. GNLU also follows 02 supernumerary seats for J K students and 05 supernumerary seats for North East India Students. For NRI and Foreign National Students, transparent process is followed by the GNLU, the University also make sure that the guidelines suggested by the Supreme Court for NRI admission, should be followed. After the admission the students are given orientation and parents are also invited to attend. The students at the time of admission only give hostel accommodation and to accommodate them all the necessary seller is invited at university doorstep. For protection against ragging, the University staff is required to perform 24 X 7 duties.

Industry Interaction / Collaboration

For all the students, the University used to arrange court visits after the class hours and also arrange transportation. For BSC and BSW students also GNLU arrange field visit in pharma companies and the tribal areas to give exposure to these students. The University also make sure to have collaboration with reputed National and International Law Schools which are useful to the students for student exchange and summer school programme, students may also get fee waiver and credit transfer subject to the respective MoUs.

7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

1) Title of the Practice: GNLU Legal Incubation Council (GLIC) 2) Objectives of the Practice: ? The main objective of establishing the GLIC is to promote the spirit of entrepreneurship by incubating, mentoring and guiding student run startups in the field of law with allied interdisciplinary areas. ? To act as an institutional mechanism for providing various startups related services on all aspect of enterprise building to budding entrepreneurs. ? To equip students with necessary entrepreneurial skills and provide all possible assistance. ? To organize business plan competitions / accelerator programs / seminars/ guest lecturers / workshops etc. ? To bridge the gap between aspiring student entrepreneurs and investors. ? To promote innovations and help convert them into market accepted products. 3) Context: GLIC is established as part of GNLU’s vision towards excellence in imparting quality legal education and executing the same in the form of support system for entrepreneurs in the domain of law and interdisciplinary domains through institutional mechanism.

GLIC intends to act as a tool to promote innovation, entrepreneurship and self-employment amongst law students as an attractive and viable career option. 4) The Practice: The Legal Incubation Centre established at GNLU in the year 2016 to convert students' enterprising ideas to be converted into full fledged startups through institutional support mechanism by providing faculty and industry mentoring, funding and networking opportunities. In 2018, the incubation centre of GNLU registered itself as a GNLU Legal Incubation Council Section 8 company to provide its services in more formal and professional manner. In the year 2017, under the State Government's scheme of Student Startup and Innovation Policy, the GNLU received the grant of Rs. 20 lakh to promote innovation and entrepreneurship. This grant helped the incubation centre to promote entrepreneurship activities on fast track mode by organizing various activities like Annual Business plan competition, expert lectures, workshops, seminars including providing seed funding to student run startups. Since inception, the incubation centre has supported total 14 student run startups. Following are the brief details about the same: i) LawBriefs (<https://lawbriefs.in>) ii) Artists Adda (<http://artistsadda.com>) iii) SoCo- Socially connected (<http://soconnect2016.wixsite.com/soco>) iv) LexADR- Solution to Alternative dispute Resolution (<https://www.lexadr.com/>) v) The Law Learner (www.thelawlearners.com) vi) Law On Door (<https://lawondoor.com/>) vii) Legal Intern viiii) RegMaster ix) Criminal Law Review (<https://crlreview.in/>) x) Acing Clat (<https://acingclat.com/>) xi) Laundry guy xii) Junior Lawyer

5) Evidence of Success: i) In 2018, the founder of Law Brief, Mr. Aditya Gor, received the award by Honorable CM Shri Vijay Rupaiji as one of the top 5 best student startups under SSIP Policy across the state. ii) In 2019, Mr. Devansh Sarasva, founder of Law Learner, won the National Business Plan Competition Insight organized by NMIMS Mumbai. Among over 100 participants the Law Learner was adjudged as the winners of the Competition and received the Prize money of Rs. 65,000.

6) Problems encountered: It has been observed that relatively few law students are inclined towards entrepreneurship with innovative ideas in the domain of law.

b) Second Best Practice

1) Title of the Practice: Mental Health Counsellor at GNLU (Mindbuddies and Psychiatrist)

2) Objective of the Practice: To address the mental health struggles of the students on campus with help of professional intervention

3) Context: It has been found that in centres of higher education, it is likely to have students facing several mental health problems such as anxiety, depression, panic attacks etc. So there is a need to create an environment which makes such students feel safe and help them come to terms with such issues. The presence of counsellor allows a window for the students to seek help on campus itself.

4) The practice: The University has employed psychiatrist and a psychologist which are on campus for three days a week. Students can approach them on other days as well given that prior appointments have been made. They provide individual sessions with ample amount of time and number of sessions to help the student figure out their interpersonal issues and work with them. Apart from this, senior students arrange for group sessions where peer to peer counselling was done where students were counselled by their peers on how to respond to professional and personal life challenges. These practices along with the university's policy for zero tolerance for any kind of casteist, racist, ableist behavior helps to create a reasonable package to deal with mental health issues at campus.

5) Evidence of Success: It is not possible to deal with mental health issues in a "one fits all" manner. There is a need to constantly create new interventions and develop the opportunities being provided to deal with such issues. The University has been making regular efforts in the direction. The fact that these interventions have helped some students in one way or another is the biggest evidence of the success. Another evidence is that the students and University are constantly working to enhance the types of interventions.

6) Problems encountered: Although GNLU is making continuous efforts towards enhancing the mental health awareness on campus and providing opportunities such as counselling and group therapies to help deal with such issues, there are some facets of the same which are yet to be addressed. It can only be done by increasingly improving our methods which the University is trying to do one step at a time.

8.Future Plans of Actions for Next Academic Year

The University intends to promote the Ph.D Programme especially in the interdisciplinary fields. To encourage the eligible faculty members to come forward to be the Ph.D guide in the interest of the University and for the concerned individual faculty member professional growth. Paperless Administration for the environmental concern, for that a dedicated ERP will be procured for all the department, rather than separate software for each department. To encourage the teachers to use the Learning Management System. Students satisfaction with regard to facilities had always been attempted to achieve including during the next year. To provide better sports facilities for the students, teachers and staff. For the Research Project, a dedicated Research Cadre will be created and they will be responsible for the good research work and to come out with publication and completing the task in stipulated time. GNLU will keep ensuring that it remains a self-sustaining Center of learning, research, training and extension. GNLU will strive towards mobilising material resources and create a base of high net-worth and high networked individuals and institutions to achieve this end, especially to carry out new activities and programmes. A collective pursuit of core objectives will lead us to the path of success.
