

Constitutional Law-I

Objective

The course has been designed with the following objectives:

- To acquaint students with the basics principles of Constitution of India.
- To enable the students understand the fundamental rights and directive principles of state policy through incisive and comparative analysis of case law and to examine the problems involved in their judicial enforcement.
- To encourage the students to think analytically.
- To cultivate the ability to identify latent constitutional issue.

Course Content

The course includes the Preamble, Union & Its Territory, Citizenship,, fundamental rights and directive Principles of State Policy and their relationship and fundamental duties.

Teaching Methodology

The course comprises of 58 lectures. The teaching methodology is lecture method and case study method.

Assessment

- Continuous Evaluation = 20 Marks
- Mid Semester Exam (duration: 2 Hrs.) = 30 Marks
- End Semester Exam (duration: 3 Hrs.) = 50 Marks

Indicative Reading

For detailed list of prescribed readings and recommended readings, students have to refer to detailed course outline sent by faculty member at the commencement of the Semester.

Course Information

Course offered in:

BALLB/BScLLB/BBALLB/BSWLLB /BBMLLB

Course Type: Compulsory

Semester: III

Examination Type: Written

Faculty

Faculty:

Mr. Avinash Bhagi, Assistant Professor of Law, Director, GNLU Centre for Constitutional & Administrative Law

Research:

Judicial Independence and Judicial Accountability

Contempt of Court

One Nation and One Election

State Boundary Disputes and Statehood Demands

Contact: abhagi@gnlu.ac.in