

National Film Making Competition on Entrepreneurship & Start-ups Organized by GNLU

Gandhinagar, February 14, 2019: Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) declared the results of the National Film Making Competition on Entrepreneurship & Start-ups- 2018, today.

The first prize went to Mr Meet Trivedi of Capture pictures, Ahmedabad for his film titled ‘A Dream’. He received a cash prize of Rs 10,000/-, memento and certificate of merit. The story of “A Dream” revolves around an entrepreneur and his dream to be the best of all. Going through the ups and downs, finally, he achieves success and film makes a happy ending. “Entrepreneurship is ultimately about paving your own path and achieving your own dreams” is what the film concludes and that essentially was also the spirit of the theme of the competition.

The second prize went to Mr Pankaj Jadhav from Mumbai for his film “startup.com” He received a cash prize of Rs 7,500/-, memento and certificate of merit. startup.com is a story of two young ambitious boys looking to start an organic food business. For finance, they approached bank and investors but both refused their proposals. They didn’t lose hope and continued without any financial support and succeeded.
