GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 18/2016

Mr. Krishna Prasad from Edith Cowan University, Australia speaks to the GNLU Students on 'Emerging areas of Electronic Contracts'

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), a Research Based Teaching University, is committed to provide world class legal education. This is reflected through its various activities along with regular lectures, teaching-learning process in the University. GNLU also regularly invites experts from various fields of law and other inter-disciplinary areas for delivering guest lectures, training, workshops, seminars etc. with a focus on removing the barriers of geographical boundaries and enhancing knowledge sharing.

Towards this objective, GNLU organized a Special Guest lecture by Mr. Krishna Prasad, Lecturer of Business Laws, School of Law and Justice, Edith Cowan University, Australia. This lecture was held on 5th February 2016 at the University campus. The topic of this Guest lecture is "Introduction to Electronic Contracts – Emerging Issues".

The lecture focused on various emerging and current issues and trends in the area of Electronic Contracts. The students of Contract Law, Corporate Law and other related areas immensely benefitted from this lecture in this age of E-Commerce boom.
