

Students of the Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) organized a Legal Awareness Drive in four nearby villages of Raisan, Randesan, Valad and Firozpur

Gandhinagar, January 04, 2020: Gandhinagar, March 07, 2020: Students of the Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) organized a Legal Awareness Drive in four nearby villages of Raisan, Randesan, Valad and Firozpur, today.

Students went to these villages and met the villagers from the poor and marginalized sections in their homes and workplaces. They apprised the villagers of their rights in various situations and protection available under the law. They also told the villagers that, if need be, they are entitled to free legal aid and they can approach the District Legal Services Authority in the Civil Court premises for availing the same. Students also informed the villagers that they are also welcome to the Legal Aid Clinic run by GNLU students on GNLU campus.

This drive was conducted as a part of many pro bono activities undertaken by GNLU students for the benefit of the neighborhood community.

Media Contact:

Ashok Shah

Email: 9909960240, 8849110049