GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 21/2015

GNLU organizes the first cricket tournament – The Advocacy Cup'15

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

GNLU is one of the top five law universities of the country and the only Law University of the State of Gujarat and is always known for its various initiatives in terms of extra-curricular activities besides academic activities. GNLU conducts a number of events, both co-curricular and extra-curricular for the students as well as various other programmes for the faculty and staff throughout the year. GNLU highly promotes Sports and Cultural activities as such initiatives provide recreation as well as showcasing the talent among the faculty, staff and students.

As part of such activities, GNLU has taken up an initiative of conducting a Cricket Tournament for the Advocates Association of the Gujarat High Court in association with the Faculty, Staff and Students of GNLU and has successfully organized it. This cricket tournament was named as The Advocacy Cup'15 and was held from 31st October to 1st November 2015 at the ground in the GNLU campus. A total of 3 teams participated in this tournament which also included a team of faculty, staff and students of GNLU. The Chief Guest for the tournament was Mr. Sudhanshu Patel, Secretary – Advocates Association of the Gujarat High Court and the Guest of Honour was Dr Thomas Mathew, Registrar of Gujarat National Law University. The team of Gujarat High Court was the winner in the first edition of Advocacy Cup'15. Mr. Sudhanshu Patel appreciated the initiative of GNLU and suggested that this tournament must be conducted every year which might see a participation of the judges in future.

The entire event was coordinated by Mr. Sugnesh Chudasama, Assistant Director of Sports and Physical Education, GNLU and was supported by the faculty, staff and students.
