

GNLU PRESS NOTE No. 31/2020

CLAT 20 to be held on August 22

It will be a computer-based, online, Centre-based test

Gandhinagar, June 30, 2020: As per the decision of the Consortium of National Law Universities (NLU), Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) 2020 shall be conducted through a computer-based, online, centre-based test to be held on Saturday, August 22, 2020.

The list of examination centres for the CLAT 2020 will be notified on July 1 and candidates may register for CLAT 2020 till July 10, 2020. All registered candidates shall select/reconfirm their test centres OR withdraw their registration by July 10, 2020. Where a candidate withdraws from CLAT 2020, their application fee shall be refunded after a deduction of INR 400 for SC/ST candidates and INR 500 for all other candidates towards processing charges.

For the candidates for the LLM programme in CLAT 2020, the examination will include 120 MCQ questions to be answered in 120 minutes. There will be no Descriptive Section in CLAT 2020.

The Consortium shall issue detailed guidance concerning the protocols and modalities of the computer-based, online, centre-based mechanism of the CLAT 2020 for all candidates to aid their preparations for the examination.

The Consortium will also conduct mock exams for all registered candidates to build familiarity with the test application and interface.

CLAT 2020 will use a “Social Distanced Computer-Based Testing” model which has been created after taking inputs from prominent health experts to address the possible threats presented by COVID-19 and to ensure that exams are conducted safely for all concerned. Details can be had from the Consortium website <https://consortiumofnlus.ac.in/>
