

GNLU emerges as the second-best Law School in India Today Rankings

Gandhinagar, July 01, 2020: Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) has been ranked No.2 among the best law colleges in the country in the recently published rankings by India Today magazine. The rankings are based on a survey conducted by the Marketing and Development Research Associates (MDRA), a reputed market research agency.

Expressing his delight over the ranking, GNLU Director Dr Shanthakumar said: “We are proud that GNLU is ranked as the second-best law college in India. This is a recognition of the commitment, hard work and dedication of our faculty, students and staff. I acknowledge everyone’s contribution in GNLU’s pursuit of excellence and congratulate them on this achievement. We will continue in our efforts to further improve our academic and research standards.”
