GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 34/2016

GNLU is Organising Two-day Training Workshop on Anti-Doping Regulations and Good Governance in Sports

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

In pursuance of its goals to serve multiple stakeholders in the sports industry, the GNLU Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law (GCSEL) in collaboration with Sports Authority of Gujarat is organising a 'Two-day Training Workshop on Anti-Doping Regulations and Good Governance in Sports', on 30th and 31st of March, 2016 at Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar.

The workshop is aimed to acquaint participants with basic laws governing and regulating doping in India along with highlighting the importance of good governance in Sports. The Course will witness expert resource persons from various fields, including Mr. Vidushpat Singhania, an eminent Sports Lawyer and Partner, Krida Legal, Mr. Sudhanshu Fadnis, former national level badminton player and Director of Sportseed, Academicians Dr. Lovely Dasgupta, Assistant Professor of Law, West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences, Dr. Richa Sharma, Director, Centre for Sports and Entertainment Law, GNLU and Ms. Pratima Dube, Deputy Dean of Academic Affairs, GNLU.

The Centre through this workshop targets to enlighten the stakeholders about the perils and pitfalls of breaching regulations of WADA, NADA and other anti-doping and sports regulating agencies. Considering the infamy that corruption has now brought to sport, the workshop will also attempt to educate the participants about the importance of good governance in sports. The Workshop will contain 12 sessions over the course of the two days.

The Centre has been actively conducting certificate courses, special lecture series, national seminars, training workshops and such other extension activities to promote Sports Law in the country. Last month, Centre successfully completed its Certificate Course on European Union and Sports coached by international sports lawyer Mr. Ian Blackshaw
