GNLU Competitive Exam Guidance Committee (GCGC)
Extension and Training Programme (July-September, 2014)

To inspire youth to join civil services, the judiciary and various important competitive services, to be part of the system and change the system in the progressive path are the vision and mission of Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar. GNLU provides continuous support and encouragement to the GNLU Competitive Exam Guidance Committee (GCGC) to reach to targeted stakeholders by organizing various extension activities and programmes. GCGC has with full rigor and a holistic learning approach organized lectures series and the training programs for the competitive exam from July to October 2014. The committee is coordinating with several professional institutes who are experienced over the years in framing and grooming students into officers and more effectively, civil servants.

GCGC organized various programme in the current semester (July to September, 2014), starting from our own Alumnus, Mr. Prashant Mishra taught students the basics of Polity and the Constitution along with a legal analysis on contemporary issues. He dealt in great detail with the topics of the Indian Constitution and Constitutional Bodies. He has cleared IAS successfully, with rank 64 this year. Other resource person like Mr. Vipin Gupta had delivered lectures on CSAT (paper II). Mr. Sanjeet Ruhel had delivered lectures on Constitutional Law. Mr. Hemant Shah took classes for general studies economics. Mr. Amandeep Soni delivered lecturer on Geography (General Studies). Dr. Sibichen. K Mathew, senior IRS officer was resources person for lecture series on newly introduced paper called Ethics and Integrity (More detail annexure: I).
