

GNLU Workshop on “Me, Us and Them”

Gandhinagar, Sep 12, 2019: Gujarat National Law University is organizing a three-day workshop on the theme “Me, Us and Them” on the 13th, 14th and 15th of September 2019.

This workshop is an enhancement programme that aims to aid students in being the “more aware” versions of themselves, measures the impact of social realities on their “I” and helps them to express themselves through a channelized creative medium, like Theatre, Creative Music and Movement, Miming and Puppetry.

The distinguished resource persons for this event are Ms. Nupur Sinha, (Executive Director of Centre for Social Justice, Ahmedabad), Ms. Simmi Srivastava (Founder- Director of Kathashala, Delhi) and Ms. Aqseer Sodhi (Trainer and Content Designer, Aaina, Delhi)

The workshop is a creative opportunity for the students to explore themselves through the lenses of different identities that arise out of caste, class, gender and religion; to understand social realities through the eyes of the vulnerable; to develop critical thinking and creative expression; and to explore relationship between law and society.
