

Gandhinagar, Wednesday, August 25, 2016

GNLU PRESS NOTE

No. 46/2016

GNLU hosts the exhibition on Indian Legal Heritage at the Legal History Museum

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from GNLU!

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), since its inception in 2003, has witnessed perpetuated augmentation in its efficiency and quality each year towards being a world class Law University. Being a Research Based Teaching University and committed to address the contemporary legal issues, its objective has always been to provide world class legal education which has been reflected through its activities over the years.

In pursuance to this, GNLU is organizing and hosting the first ever Exhibition on the theme “Portraying the Judicial History of the Cities of India: The Photo History of Indian Legal Heritage”. The exhibition will be inaugurated by Hon’ble Mr. Justice Mukesh R. Shah, Judge, High Court of Gujarat on 29th August 2016 at 9:30 am and will be open for public at the Legal History Museum of GNLU till 20th September 2016. This exhibition will portray the different faces of the Indian Legal System through a range of exclusive and rare photographs and take a tour of the history of India. These photographs of the Indian Legal System and its historical evolvment portrayed in different cities of India have been collected by the students of GNLU which will be displayed at the exhibition.

Come, be a part of this unique journey!

For any further queries, please contact Dr Richa Sharma, Assistant Professor of History at (rsharma@gnlu.ac.in) or 8128650866.