

Constitution Day celebrated at GNLU

---

Gandhinagar, Nov 26, 2019: Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) in collaboration with the District Legal Services Authority, Gandhinagar celebrated the Constitution Day on GNLU campus, today.

26th November is celebrated every year as a Constitution Day to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India.

This year to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution of India, the Government of India has decided to launch a year-long campaign focusing on creating awareness on citizens' duties including Fundamental Duties, that are enshrined in Chapter IV-A (Article 51A) of the Constitution of India - in a most befitting manner throughout the country, commencing from 26th November 2019.

In this context, the faculty and staff of GNLU assembled near the Preamble, read the Preamble as well as Fundamental duties and took an oath to abide by the fundamental duties enshrined in the Constitution.

Media Contact:

Ashok Shah

Email: 9909960240, 8849110049