

CPIIL weekly newsletter

What's New in International Law?
25 September 2024

In the news

- Permanent Court of Arbitration to open new office in New Delhi.
- Amnesty International has called for global investigations after deadly explosions in Lebanon and Syria.
- Israel has challenged the jurisdiction of ICC and issuance of warrants against PM Netanyahu and Defence Minister Gallant.
- The UK will nominate Professor Dapo Akande, one of the world's leading scholars on law of armed conflict, to the ICJ.
- Alain Berset takes over as Secretary General of the Council of Europe.

Blogs and articles

- In this post, David Crane provides a brief analysis the Israeli pager attack in Lebanon using the principles of law of armed conflict.
- In this post, Marko Milanovic analyzes if the “pager attack” by Israel was “indiscriminate”.
- In this upcoming chapter, Gaurav Mukherjee and Arun Thiruvengadam explore how international human rights norms have affected social rights in India.
- In this article for The Hindu, Prof Prabash Ranjan critiques the Supreme Court's decision refusing to interfere in a PIL challenging India's exports to Israel, rooting his analysis in international humanitarian law.

Calls for Papers and other Announcements

- The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict invites paper submission for first issue of 2025. The deadline for submission is 15 January 2025.
- Student Essay Competition organized by Goettingen Journal of International Law on “The UN Mechanisms in Times of Global Crisis”. The submission deadline is 28 February 2025.