

Dear All,

Greetings from the GNLU Centre for Environment, Sustainability, and Climate Justice (GCESCJ)!

We are excited to announce that the 3rd edition of the International Conference on Climate Justice and Sustainable Environment, 2026 (ICCJSE) is to be held from 20th to 22nd February, 2026. The conference aims to provide a dynamic platform to engage with some of the most pressing environmental challenges of our time.

Following the success of the previous editions of ICCJSE which brought together multidisciplinary gathering of students researcher , practitioners, policymakers, and judges. It aims to offer a stage to share novel insights, explore innovative solutions, and deliberate on strategies for climate justice and sustainability. This year we have gone beyond paper presentations to also conduct round table discussions and breakout rooms where participants can interact with industry specialists to brainstorm interesting solutions to pressing environmental concerns.

This year's theme, "Climate Justice at the Crossroads: Climate Risks, ESG, Mitigation and Adaptation Strategies for a Sustainable Future" can include, but is not limited to:

- ESG Regulations, Corporate Accountability & Sustainable Financial Governance
- Protecting vulnerable communities through indigenous-led, equity-driven climate action.
- Climate litigation, human rights, and evolving global climate governance
- Mitigation Strategies in Energy, Industry & Urban Planning
- Green energy transitions, renewable law reforms, and decarbonization strategies
- Climate & Public Health: Emerging Risks and Policy Responses
- Technology, AI, and data-driven climate governance systems
- Food Security, Agriculture & Water Governance Under Climate Stress
- International Climate Law Obligations and the Emergence of Cross-Jurisdictional Climate Litigation
- Climate Change and the Blue Economy: Advancing Ocean Justice through International Law
- Environmental Crimes, Ecocide & Enforcement
