About G-HELP

G-HELP was established on 28th September 2024 as a Centre of Excellence, focused on advancing health law, policy, and ethics. Building on the success of GNLU's Postgraduate Diploma in Medical Law, Policy, and Ethics, offered exclusively for doctors, the Centre will now incorporate this program as part of its broader mandate.

The Centre will expand on this foundation by offering specialised training, certificate courses, and public awareness initiatives, creating a comprehensive platform for professionals and the public alike to engage with health law and policy. By fostering national and international partnerships, the Centre seeks to create lasting impact within the healthcare system, advancing both legal standards and medical practices.

+ About the Course
