ABOUT THE CHAIR

Criminal law and criminal justice have always been the fields of practice and research. Law needs to keep pace with the rapid changes in the society. Various dimensions of crime have emerged in the past few decades. Shri. Ram Jethmalani & JLU Chair of Criminal Law and Criminal Justice aims to ensure continuous growth in the area of criminal law and to establish a common platform for those who have stake in the criminal justice system of the country. It also aspires to create a bridge between the vulnerable and underprivileged section of the society and criminal justice system. The objectives of Shri. Ram Jethmalani & JLU Chair of Criminal Law and Criminal Justice is to promote comprehensive research on criminal law and criminal justice system, promote the study of interplay of criminal law with other sectors of study, enrich the members of the criminal law field with insights on recent developments, conduct training programs for advocates, judges and academicians, coordinate with the government regarding the required amendments in the criminal law system, work on providing access to justice to the unrepresented and under-represented section of the society, work on the development of the ADR mechanism in the field of criminal law and provide free legal aid to the vulnerable and underprivileged section of the society

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

The two day workshop will largely focus on the issues related to child sexual abuse and progress made for protection and implementation of laws related to them. child sexual abuse. The right of children to physical and personal integrity is related to the fundamental right to life and personal and social development. All forms of physical, sexual and emotional abuse against children may have serious negative short-term and long-term physical, mental and reproductive health consequences. These include physical injury, sexually transmitted infections, anxiety, depression, suicidal ideation, unplanned pregnancy and in some cases death. Good treatment will produce positive effects on the physical and mental development of children. To ensure a healthy society, it is of critical importance that children who have been subjected to abuse and neglect are given the appropriate support in treatment and dignified rehabilitation.

In the span of two days, the workshop would discuss the national and global overview of child sexual abuse and different legislations and policies available on the same in India. The workshop shall also address the issues related to mental health and development of such children and shall also include the recovery and rehabilitation of Child Victims of Sexual Abuse.
