Gujarat National Law University

GNLU

Gujarat National Law University (GNLU) is committed to excellence in teaching, research, and holistic development of the students and staff. It aims to develop a sense of responsibility among the students and research scholars to serve society with the help of the field of law by developing skills concerning advocacy, legal service, legislation and law reforms. It aims to promote legal knowledge and to make law and the legal process efficient instruments of social development and social justice.

LKS

Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan (LKS) is a full-service law firm based in India. The firm has offices in 14 cities and has over 475 professionals specializing in areas such as corporate & commercial laws, dispute resolution, taxation and intellectual property. Over the last three decades, they have worked with a variety of clients – start-ups, small & medium enterprises, large Indian corporates and multinational companies. Their professionals have experience of working in both traditional sectors such as commodities, automobile, pharmaceuticals, petrochemicals and modern sectors such as e-commerce, big data, renewables.

GLIC

The GNLU Legal Incubation Council (GLIC) a Section 8 company, has been instrumental in nurturing legal innovation and entrepreneurship. At GLIC students' enterprising ideas are encouraged to convert into brimming startups by providing faculty and industry mentoring, funding and networking opportunities. GLIC is also supported under the State Government's Student Start-up and Innovation Policy (SSIP) scheme which helped the Incubation Centre to promote entrepreneurship activities on a fast-track mode. The GLIC has conducted several successful events since its inception, such as 'Social Entrepreneurship Edition: न्याय नवीनीकरणोत्सव', 'GLIC National Legal Ideathon', 'GLIC Startup Challenge' and many more. GLIC has incubated 31 start-ups till date, providing them with the necessary legal and business support to thrive.

GCIPR

GNLU established the Centre for Intellectual Property Rights in January 2016, recognizing the immense potential of Intellectual Property Rights to guide the domestic innovative and creative industries towards growth on the global platform. The Centre was established with a three-fold objective, i.e., to encourage academic discourse on IPR and allied subjects to develop research plans for exclusive on-field studies and to create better awareness among stakeholders by designing and conducting programs.

ABOUT THE CERTIFICATE COURSE
