ABOUT GCRCJS:

Recognizing that a comprehensive appreciation of the technicalities, complexities and patterns of criminal law are indispensable for realizing the goals of the law, the University established the Centre for Research in Criminal Justice Sciences. (GCRCJS) It is a Centre dedicated to carry out research in the niche area of Criminal Law. The Centre provides a platform for a holistic research environment and aims to further knowledge and academic discussions about the multifaceted dimensions of criminal science.

GCRCJS conducted the 1st National Essay Writing Competition in July-August, 2021, a Certificate Course on Cyber Crime, Crime Forensics and Law in August, 2021 and the 13th Asian Criminology Conference in July 2022 which had about 500 participants, resource persons and organizing committee members from all across India and the world, with representation from countries such as Malaysia, Australia, Japan, Sri Lanka and Bangladesh. The 13th Asian Criminology Conference, which was organized in collaboration with the Asian Criminological Society, National Forensic Science University, Gujarat Maritime University and University of Madras (Department of Criminology) received more than 200 abstracts across 11 different sub-themes, and was graced by dignitaries such as Chief Justice of Gujarat High Court, Hon'ble Justice Aravind Kumar, Hon'ble Justice NV Anjaria from the Gujarat High Court, Shree Harsh Sanghvi, Home Minister, Gujarat, Hon'ble Justice Kaushal Thaker from the Allahabad High Court, Prof. Dr. NK Chakrabarti, Director of WBNUJS and many more.

GCRCJS has facilitated transfer of knowledge and ideas by conducting 8 student discourses under the "Crime and Justice: A Discourse Series" and published 6 issues of its well-regarded newsletter "The Crime and Justice Gazette" which covers a wide range of contemporary issues, murder mysteries, case comments, articles, crosswords and riddles. GCRCJS has had the privilege of hosting Shri Shekhar Naphade, Senior Advocate, practicing at the Supreme Court of India for a webinar pertaining to the law of evidence.

ABOUT THE EVENT:

India is completing 75 years of Independence on 15th August 2022. The Indian journey post-Independence has been upwards and upwards, and Indians have attained significant might and glory at all spheres and forums of social, economic, political, cultural, technological and legal dimensions. While commemorating 75 years of Independence, it is indispensable to laud the efforts of the police force and the armed forces- the Indian Navy, Indian Army and Indian Airforce who work tirelessly and ceaselessly in order to ensure safety and security in the nation. The police and the armed forces play a pivotal role in the development of India, and it thus becomes very important to talk about the role of the police and armed forces in the proliferation and administration of criminal justice in India, while emphasizing on essential topics such as surveillance, investigation, intelligence, arrests, and the justice delivery system. The Indian Navy has countless achievements to its roster, to name a few- Operation Sankalp, Operation Samudra Setu, Mission SAGAR and SAGAR-II, and performed brilliant activities with navies of foreign countries, such as- SLINEX 2020, INDRA NAVY 2020, JIMEX 2020, etc. Today, as war and conflict surround major countries of the world, the Indian Armed Forces, whose training, expertise and experience is impeccable in their niche areas, ensure that the Indian fronts are safeguarded against any aggressors and stories of their valor, hard-work, determination and integrity, continue to inspire all Indian nationals. Thus, the Webinar themed "INDIA @75: REVISITING NATIONAL SECURITY AND GOVERNANCE".
