

Gujarat National Law University

GNLU PRESS NOTE No. 21/2021

GNLU Alumna accepted to Judicial Fellowship Programme of the International Court of Justice

Gandhinagar, April 15, 2021: Ms Tanishtha Vaid, an alumna of Gujarat National Law University (GNLU), has been accepted to 2021-2022 Judicial Fellowship Programme of the International Court of Justice.

Following her undergraduate degree from GNLU in 2019, Tanishtha completed her LL.M. in International Legal Studies at New York University in 2020. Currently, she is a full-time International Finance and Development Fellow (Legal) at The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), Paris.

The Judicial Fellowship Programme of the International Court of Justice was established in 1999 to enable law graduates to gain experience working at the International Court of Justice in The Hague. Annually, a select group of students from across premier universities is appointed as fellows in the International Court of Justice's judicial wing. Tanishtha will be the first student from GNLU to hold this prestigious position.

"I am grateful for the opportunities provided to me during my undergraduate degree at Gujarat National Law University, such as participation in the 70th Session of the International Law Commission in Geneva and international moot court competitions, which were instrumental in my selection to the Court," said Tanishtha who is keen to continue her association with her alma matter, GNLU.

GNLU Director Prof (Dr) S. Shanthakumar said, "Selection of GNLU students for such prestigious international assignments bears testimony to the fact that our students are second to none and can compete with the students of the globally-renowned law schools. I join GNLU faculty in wishing Tanishtha all the best in her future endeavour."

Media Contact:

Ashok Shah

Email: 9909960240, 8849110049