

GNLU organizes a Certificate Course on “Economics of Constitutional Law”

Gandhinagar, August 24, 2018: Gujarat National Law University’s Centre for Law and Economics is organizing 15 hours certificate course on the “Economics of Constitutional Law” from 27th to 31st August 2018.

The aim of the course is to appreciate economic models of social decision-making and to understand and apply the economic way of thinking to political and constitutional phenomena, which will improve participants’ critical and reflective thinking skills.

During the course, participants will be made aware about tools and techniques used in the study of law and economics, which further will give them exposure of understanding and learning economic analysis of Constitutional Law. This discourse in the certificate course will help Participants to understand the approach of Government, NGO, think tanks etc. towards policy making at national and international level.

Resource persons for the certificate course are:

- Dr Regis Lanneau, Associate Professor, University of Paris Nanterre/CNAM/Sciences, Co-director of the master program on economic regulation, Co-director of the master norms' management and management of norms, Co-director of the university diploma, Management of businesses and labour organization, Public Law Research Center, FIDES, University of Paris Nanterre, France.
- Dr Ranita Nagar, Professor of Economics, Dean of Research and Publications, Director, Center for Law and Economics, GNLU, Gandhinagar.
- Dr Hiteshkumar Thakkar, Assistant Professor of Economics, GNLU, Gandhinagar.

For further details, please contact Mr Marisport, Assistant Professor of Law, GNLU at (marisport@gnlu.ac.in).