

GCRCJS Webinar On Admissibility Of Electronic Evidences

About the Centre

Recognizing that a comprehensive appreciation of the technicalities, complexities and patterns of criminal law are indispensable for realizing the goals of the law, the Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar established the Centre for Research in Criminal Justice Sciences (GCRCJS). It is a centre dedicated to researching the niche area of Criminal Law. The centre provides a platform for a holistic research environment and aims to further knowledge and academic discussions about the multifaceted dimensions of criminal sciences.

About the Speaker

Mr. Bharat Chugh is an independent counsel practicing in the Supreme Court of India. After graduating with a degree in law from Jamia Milla Islamia in 2011, he secured first rank in the Delhi Judicial Services Exam in 2013 and was appointed as a magistrate. After resigning from judgeship in 2016, Mr. Chugh served as a partner at L&L partners, acted as an amicus curiae in several criminal cases and has been a resource person for various prominent institutions. He is an avid reader and often writes on legal issues for various blogs like SCC etc. He is also a member of the YSIAC Steering Committee (Singapore International Arbitration Centre).

Topic

Admissibility of electronic evidences

Schedule

15th October 2021 (Friday), 3 P.M. (IST)

Platform

Cisco Webex

Registration Procedure

Kindly register for the webinar here. After the form is filled, the participant shall receive the details to join the session on the Email ID provided.

For any further queries regarding the event please contact us at gcrcls@gnlu.ac.in.

Kindly take note that no certificate shall be provided to the attendees, nor shall any request in this regard be entertained.

GCRCJS
presents
Webinar on “Admissibility of Electronic Evidences.”

Time: 3 PM
Date: 15 October
2021
Platform: Cisco
Webex

Mr. Bharat Chugh is an independent counsel practising in the Supreme Court of India. After graduating with a degree in law from Jamia Millia Islamia in 2011, he secured the first rank in the Delhi Judicial Services Exam in 2013 and was appointed as a magistrate. After resigning from judgeship in 2016, Mr. Chugh has served as a partner at L&L partners, acted as an Amicus Curiae in several criminal cases and has been a resource person for various prominent institutions. He is an avid reader and often writes on legal issues.