

Gujarat National Law University

GCRCJS
presents Webinar on
*"Reading of evidence, and the process of examination and cross examination in criminal trials:
Challenges and gray
areas in the practical scenario"*

Date: 16th April, 2022

Time: 4 PM
Onwards

Platform: Cisco
Webex

Mr. Shekhar Naphade, Senior Advocate, started his law practice in the year 1974 and has been practicing in the Supreme Court of India for more than 4 decades. He recently appeared in the case popularly known as Arunachal Assembly case. One of the important matters in which he appeared relates to interpretation of Section 154 Cr. P.C. popularly known as Lalita Kumari's case. Mr. Naphade appeared in a case involving constitutional challenge to MCOC Act, Aruna Shan Baug's case relating to Right to Live and Die with Dignity, Mercy Killing, etc. He has also appeared in Jayalalitha's Disproportionate Assets case, BCCI (Cricket case). Jalikattu's case, Ram Jethmalani v. Union of India. (Black Money case) among others.